Benefitting the Educational Outreach Programs of Manassas Ballet Theatre

The LCPL Colin J. Wolfe, USMC Memorial Golf Tournament

Colin J. Wolfe, the son of Amy and Mark Wolfe, grew up dancing with the Manassas Ballet Theatre, performing each year through 2005. In June 2005, Colin enlisted with the Marine Corps, graduating in September 2005. Colin was deployed to Iraq in July, 2006. He was killed by a roadside bomb only seven weeks later on August 30, 2006.

MANASSAS BALLET THEATRE

Our Mission

Manassas Ballet Theatre is a 501c(3) nonprofit corporation founded in 1983. Our mission is to enhance the quality of life in Northern Virginia by providing accessible and affordable professional ballet performances, educational outreach to the community and the highest level of training to the serious student.

Our Educational Outreach

The Educational Outreach program is a partnership of Manassas Ballet Theatre, Prince William County Schools, the Manassas City Public Schools, SPARK (the PWC Schools Education Foundation), and the Hylton Performing Arts Center. These professional ballet programs are staged exclusively for the students during school hours and are free of charge to the students. The selected classes first watch an introductory video, which explains about the Hylton Performing Arts Center, Manassas Ballet Theatre, the process of putting a ballet performance together, and how to be a properly behaved audience member. On the day of the performance, the children are transported to the Hylton where they watch a professional ballet production at a world class venue. At the end of every performance, there is a Q & A session when the students directly interact with the MBT performers and artistic staff. After returning to school, the teachers incorporate elements of the performance experience into the SOL curriculum. In this way, over 7,000 school children annually receive exposure to a professional arts event that otherwise few would experience.
